

This program provides outstanding training for the nursing workforce in Maine and surrounding areas. Our program helps ensure nurses receive current education and opportunities for mentorship with dedicated preceptors and other clinical educators. This professional development helps our nursing workforce flourish, support new nurses, and reduce our growing nursing shortage.

Our program data shows how much this education program makes a difference for nurses in Maine.

MNPEP Impacts All of Nursing in Maine

Nurses of all ages and experience levels participate in this important preceptor program.

BREAKDOWN OF ROLES

75% of attendees are Registered Nurses

67% of Registered Nurse attendees have 0-10 years of experience

Participants who have already:

The MNPEP Curriculum is a Valuable Experience

Nurses who participate in this program assert that it is relevant, enhances knowledge and prepares them to hold the role of a preceptor.

Attendees report a 46% increase in their overall confidence after completing the program.

Attendees at Registration	Attendees at Follow-Up	Increase in Confidence
2020 - 66% are confident	2020 - 94% are confident	28%
2021 - 54% are confident	2021 - 96% are confident	42%
2022 - 49% are confident	2022 - 95% are confident	46%

MNPEP Helps Nurses Build Skills and Support Future Workforce Members

MNPEP helps preceptors train new nurses to use their skills in real-life situations, easing the transition from learning to practice.

Participants who agree that:

Nurses who graduate from this program become leaders and help their organizations create and retain a high-quality nursing workforce.

Participants who agree that:

The virtual education program provided a good learning environment	95%
The program content was relevant to nursing	96%
The program increased their interest in holding a preceptor role	93%
The program met their personal objectives	94%

95% recommend MNPEP to other nurses

The MNPEP Curriculum Helps Attendees Prepare for Current and Future Careers

After the program is complete, participants report more confidence in upholding professional standards and serving as preceptors.

Post-program increase in participant confidence levels to:

Apply the Maine Nurse Core Competencies	154%
Work Within a Multigenerational Workforce	144%
Apply Role Responsibilities Across the Continuum of Care	104%
Practice Within Legal, Ethical, and Professional Standards	61%
Assess the Learning Preferences and Needs	95%
Develop Goals, Learning Outcomes, and Teaching Plans	104%
Guide and Assess the Progress and Performance	81%

91% feel better equipped to utilize Patricia Benner's Stages of Clinical Competence